

VIPAR Heavy Duty Family of Companies

Andrei Katibnikov

Vice President of Information Technology

Andrei Katibnikov is vice president of information technology (IT) for VIPAR Heavy Duty and its family of companies, a North American network of more than 250 independent heavy duty truck parts distributors and service specialists based in Crystal Lake, Illinois.

At VIPAR Heavy Duty, he is a member of the executive management team and responsible for all IT solutions including infrastructure design.

Before joining VIPAR Heavy Duty in 2016, Katibnikov served in an advisory role with the organization for more than 15 years helping develop and provide support for the company's information technology infrastructure. In addition, he worked on projects with VIPAR Heavy Duty to assist the organization before the move to its current headquarters in Crystal Lake, Illinois.

Katibnikov has more than 20 years of experience in the information technology field, including roles as a senior systems engineer and chief information officer.

Distributors within the VIPAR Heavy Duty family of companies are specialists who understand the demands of their local, regional, and national customers for quality parts and exceptional service. With more than 800 locations across the United States, Canada, Puerto Rico and Mexico, distributors serve the needs of customers operating under the VIPAR Heavy Duty and Power Heavy Duty brands in their local markets. VIPAR Heavy Duty also operates a wholly owned subsidiary, Global Parts Network, LLC, a brake manufacturing and product distribution center. VIPAR Heavy Duty and its family of companies is one of three founding members of NEXUS North America, LLC, the exclusive partner for NEXUS Automotive International SA in North America.
